

Santa Maria Community Services Welcomes New Board Members

Cincinnati (09/23/10) - Santa Maria Community Services introduces four new Board members. Bev A. Stenger, CPA, Michael David Stautberg, Angela Therese Meyer-Hogan, and Nelson Rosario began serving their first term on Santa Maria's Board of Directors in September 2010. Santa Maria is proud to welcome them.

Bev A. Stenger, CPA has worked as an accountant for over 20 years and currently works as a Controller/Internal Auditor at The Visiting Nurse Association located in Cincinnati. She previously held the title of Senior Accountant at Barnes Dennig & Co., Ltd. and worked there for over 15 years. She has volunteered at The Aronoff Center and The Covedale Center of Performing Art. Stenger became acquainted with Santa Maria by donating household items to the organization in the past. She is enthusiastic about using her experience and background in a useful way to give back to the community.

"I am pleased to lend my time, talent, and training to organizations that have a proven track record for doing good in our community," said newly appointed Board member Michael Stautberg. Stautberg, a graduate of the University of Cincinnati with a degree in Communication, works as the Executive Director at the Atrium Medical Center Foundation. He currently serves as a Board member of Community Land Cooperative of Cincinnati and Junior Achievement of Middletown, Ohio. Stautberg is a member of Kiwanis Club of Middletown.

Angela Therese Meyer-Hogan, a Xavier University Alum, currently works as assistant manager at Procter & Gamble. She became aware of Santa Maria while being part of the United Way's Emerging Leaders Society internship program. A strong supporter of non-profit organizations, Meyer-Hogan is currently a United Way campaign coordinator for her division at P&G. She supports MoveOn.org and WVXU. "I want to bring fresh, creative ideas to the organization, increase participation of younger membership, volunteers and work to fundraise. And of course, I personally want to be involved and give back to the community," said Meyer-Hogan.

Nelson Rosario worked for more than 40 years at GE and retired in 2009. His last position at the company was as Director of Military International Programs. Rosario currently volunteers for Su Casa Hispanic Ministries and iSpace, Inc. "I have always had a passion to help those who have not had the same opportunities or been as fortunate as I have been. With some guidance and encouragement these members of our community can achieve improvements in their standard of living. Now that I am retired I have the time to more fully engage in assisting them," – reflected Rosario.

Santa Maria Community Services and its Board of Directors are looking forward to working with the new Board members to further the organization's efforts while continuing to establish a strong presence in the community.
